BIOGRAPHY

Aubri Nowowiejski (No-Whiskey) aspires to inspire. She is the proud Founder & Board Director of the Student Event Planners Association, an Executive Producer at Coterie Spark, and a professional speaker.

EDUCATION & LEADERSHIP

Aubri graduated high school from the American School of Dubai in the United Arab Emirates. Within three years, she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Mass Communication with an emphasis in Public Relations and a minor in Business Administration from Texas State University. Throughout her high school and university career, Aubri held six executive officer positions, six presidential positions, and received four scholarships.

FOUNDER & BOARD DIRECTOR | SEPA

While in university, Aubri founded the Student Event Planners Association (SEPA), a professional organization that caters to Millennials in the event planning and hospitality industry. SEPA is now nationwide and represents the future of the event industry.

EXECUTIVE PRODUCER | COTERIE SPARK

Aubri began her career in corporate America. She climbed the ladder in five years to Marketing Manager and earned four awards for her work. Aubri is continuing the winning streak at Coterie Spark, a global meeting and event management firm headquartered in Houston, Texas.

PROFESSIONAL SPEAKER

Aubri has presented at over 30 schools and for numerous conferences and associations worldwide, including The Special Event (TSE), Florida Festivals & Events Association (FFEA), Society for Incentive Travel Excellence (SITE), and the International Association of Exhibitions and Events (IAEE).
